Jamaica Combined Cadet Force Repairs Home for Elderly Resident in St Ann

As part of its commitment to community service, the Jamaica Combined Cadet Force (JCCF) undertook the repair of an indigent home in Golden Grove, St Ann, during their Annual Camp Phase 3, held at Ferncourt High School.

The camp, which ran from July 27 to August 8, 2024, saw the participation of over 200 members, including officers, adult instructors, cadets, and other attachés.

The beneficiary of this initiative was 86-year-old Ms. Therisa Harrison, a resident of Golden Grove, who expressed her heartfelt gratitude to the JCCF for the much-needed assistance.

In addition to the repairs, Ms. Harrison received a care package presented by the Camp Commandant, Lieutenant Colonel Alvin Reid.

Lieutenant Colonel Reid praised the dedication of all those who attended the camp, emphasizing the importance of service above self. "The commitment displayed by our officers, instructors, cadets, and all others involved exemplifies the spirit of the JCCF," he remarked.

Onlookers from the community also expressed their appreciation for the support provided to Ms. Harrison, highlighting the positive impact of the JCCF's efforts on the local community.

The JCCF's Annual Camp Phase 3 not only provided valuable training for its members but also reinforced the organization's dedication to making a difference in the lives of those in need.
