Minister Chang involved in Motor Vehicle Collision

Minister of National Security, the Hon. Dr. Horace Chang was involved in a motor vehicle collision earlier this morning at approximately 5:45 a.m.

Minister Chang, along with two Close Protection Officers (CPO), were enroute to the Norman Manley Airport, when the accident occurred at the intersection of Shortwood and Grants Pen road in St. Andrew.

The Minister and his CPOs were examined at the University Hospital of the West Indies (UHWI). Minister Chang did not sustain any injuries, however the CPOs sustained minor injuries and were treated before being released.

Minister Chang is in good spirits, and wishes to thank everyone for their outpouring of support and well wishes.
